BRINGING AWARENESS, SUPPORTING WITH LOVE

AUGUST, 2020

Dear LBDRC Friends and Caregivers,

In July of 2019, we had the wonderful opportunity of holding a private screening and reception at Lincoln Center of the new Robin Williams documentary, Robin's Wish. On Tuesday, September 1st, it will now be released for the first time on VOD (Video on Demand) through Apple TV, iTunes, Amazon, Fandango, Google Play and also on Comcast, Verizon, Directv and others.

This final cut of the film is even better and more compelling than the earlier version and has received an excellent review in The Wall Street Journal. Here is a link to the trailer: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=V59s_aslf2g&feature=youtu.be

The Lewy Body Dementia Resource Center is proud to be one of the consulting partners on the documentary. Robin's Wish is the first major film that will bring knowledge of Lewy Body Dementia to the public. It is a huge opportunity for much needed awareness in order to help with earlier diagnosis, understanding, support and research.

At the screening last summer, we also held a Q&A with Susan Schneider Williams and Director Tylor Norwood. For those of you who watch the film beginning September 1st and would like to hear additional insights from Susan and Tylor, please click on this link on our website: <https://lewybodyresourcecenter.org/advocacy-awareness/ny-videos-audios/>

As always, please know we are here for you with our helpline at 516-218-2026 from 8am to 8pm EST seven days a week, with our support groups via zoom and conference calls, and with over 8,000 resources on our website at <https://lewybodyresourcecenter.org/>

As we are a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, our financial support comes from individual donors like you. We thank you in advance for any donations you are able to make at this time, all of which are tax-deductible. Donations can be made online at: <https://lewybodyresourcecenter.org/donate/> or mailed to: LBDRC, 750 West Broadway, #2R, Long Beach, NY 11561.

Warm regards to all,

Norma
